10K RUN, 5K RUN, 5K WALK, YOUTH FUN RUN EVENTS

The seventh annual Habitat for Humanity Run/Walk will start and finish at Providence Presbyterian Church, just off Hwy. 378 in West Columbia, SC. The 10K and 5K races will be run on a USATF-certified course in residential neighborhoods leading out to Hwy. 378, and both are part of the Columbia Running Club's "Tour De Columbia," a series of races to promote running for fun, and to assist the community by raising money for local non-profits. The 5K walk course is the same as the 5K run course and begins shortly after the 10K and 5K running events.

Youth Fun Run — fun for the entire family! Boys and girls ages 3 to 10 can participate in the Youth Fun Run held in the back of Providence Presbyterian Church. All kids entered will receive a commemorative medal upon finishing.

For more information on any of these events, visit our web site: www.ProvidencePresbyterian.net, and click on "2010 Habitat for Humanity Run/Walk." Or e-mail Jennifer Covington, race director, at jcovington@criticalmassofcolumbia.com.

A few features included in this year's events are:

- Water/aid stations at Mile 2 (5K and 10K) and Mile 4 (10K course)
- Split call-outs at Mile 1 (5K and 10K), Mile 3 (10K) and Mile 5 (10K)
